

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TENNESSEE
AT KNOXVILLE

FILED

07/14/2026

Clerk of the
Appellate Courts

STATE OF TENNESSEE v. DONYELL DEWAYNE HOLLAND

Criminal Court for Hamilton County
Nos. 317210 and 311081

No. E2024-01809-CCA-R3-CD

ORDER

Before the court is the pro se Appellant's motion to supplement the appellate record with the following items: (1) the indictment in case number 311081, which preceded the superseding indictment in case number 317210; (2) a Motion for Bill of Particulars, if one was filed; and (3) a copy of the unredacted video that the Appellant alleges was viewed by the jury. The Appellant asserts that inclusion of these items is necessary to convey a complete account of what transpired in the trial court relative to the issues raised on appeal. State v. Caudle, 388 S.W.3d 273 (Tenn. 2012); Tenn. R. App. P. 24(a) (providing that the record on appeal shall include items "sufficient to convey a fair, accurate and complete account of what transpired with respect to those issues that are the bases of appeal").

The court notes that this matter has been docketed for on-briefs adjudication on the court's August 11, 2026 docket. The State has not filed a response in opposition to the Appellant's motion. That said, as it relates to the unredacted video, the State notes in its brief that the only video viewed by the jury at trial was the redacted version.

For good cause, the Appellant's motion to supplement the appellate record is GRANTED, in part and DENIED, in part. No later than 10 days from the date of entry of this order, the trial court clerk shall prepare and transmit to the appellate court clerk a supplement to the appellate record in compliance with Rule 24(a) that includes the indictment in case number 311081 and any motion for bill of particulars filed by the Appellant, if one was filed. If no bill of particulars was filed, the trial court clerk shall so certify in the supplement. In addition to providing notice to the parties pursuant to Rule 23 of the Tennessee Rules of Appellate Procedure, the appellate court clerk shall forward a copy of this order to the trial court clerk via electronic mail.
